

April 18 • 6 p.m.

featuring Trinity Carillons with Adult Choir & Children's Choirs

Each year we take time to celebrate our heritage of hymns. These songs of our faith are a huge part of who we are from an early age. They enrich our worship experiences, give us comfort and encouragement, give voice to our praise, and provide structure for our faith in God. Hymns remind us that God is great; He is our Friend, our Redeemer, our Sustainer.

Hymns come from many different sources and cultures, and the writers have many different sources of inspiration. How blessed we are to have this tool for planting God's word in our hearts and in the hearts of our children.

I hope you will plan to join us as we combine instruments and voices of all ages in raising our hymns of praise to God.

Easter 2010

The Easter Season is upon us! The signs of spring and the hope of resurrection go hand in hand! Our church will move toward Resurrection Sunday with an intentional stride. I have listed below the schedule for our path as a congregation toward Easter Sunday, and I hope you will make plans to be a part of all we are doing as a church to remember the love of God in Jesus Christ.

Palm Sunday/Children's Sabbath
Sunday, March 28

This is a worship time led by our children in both Sunday services that you will not want to miss.

We will meet in the sanctuary at 6pm for a worship service and for the remembrance of the Lord's Supper. There will be childcare for our preschoolers and all others will meet in the sanctuary.

Service of Tenebrae
Friday, April 2

We meet at 7pm in the sanctuary for a service of shadows. This reflective service helps us to remember the agony and sacrifice of Christ.

Easter Sunday, April 4

Our traditional Easter Breakfast will take place at 7:15 in the fellowship hall. We will worship in two services and celebrate the wonder of God's grace and love together in worship.

Passport Youth Camp

June 27-July 2, 2010 • Wingate, NC

Missions Madness is coming soon! This is a missions-oriented retreat weekend hosted by First Baptist Church in Huntsville. Other churches from across the state will be there and since it is so close to us, we will ride a bus each day to the events. This will also help us keep our costs down so the whole weekend is only $40. There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board and each youth will also need a Trinity release form on file as well as a Missions Madness participants form signed by parents. Those forms will also be on the bulletin board and all paperwork and money is due by Wednesday, March 31.

Just a reminder about the changes in the Praise Team and Youth Reps schedule the rest of this month. They will be meeting on alternating Wednesday nights at 7:00 p.m. in March – here's the plan:

March 17.....No pm activities (spring break)

March 24.....Praise Team II (Hunter, Josh C, Riley, Audrey, Josh M, Stephen, Brett)

March 31.....Youth Reps

The Youth Drama Team will take a break until after Easter but Youth Choir continues at 5:00 p.m. each Sunday.
