Throughout the entire summer, all college Students are invited to Craigs' house for a time of fellowship and worship around a meal and campfire. We spend these nights intentionally, as our college students purchase the ingredients and cook the night's meal! We plan to meet on July 14, and 21.

This event is only for graduated seniors (class of 2026) and college students!

Music and Worship Ministries

Hymn of the Month for July--"In Christ Alone"
The first of many collaborative efforts of songwriters Keith Getty and Stuart Townend resulted in a song which has become one of the best-loved hymns of faith in the world. "In Christ Alone" depicts in powerful, poetic fashion the Lord's Incarnation, Suffering and Death, Resurrection, and Exaltation before ending with the promise of His glorious Return. A recommended scriptural passage to read this month as we experience this hymn is Ephesians 1: 3-14.

Please see the insert this morning for tune and text.

The Sanctuary Choir WILL meet for rehearsal this Wednesday, July 15
Guests are always welcome. Child Care is provided. Come and sing with us this summer!

The morning anthem scheduled for July 19 is Agnus Dei.

Also, please note that our typical Sanctuary Choir regular rehearsals are at 7 pm in the choir loft.

Child Forgiven – Jennings and Gaither/arr. Duren

I thought I had my bases covered. My destiny was in control. But I could see I'd never reach perfection the day I hit a slick spot in the road. After that I thought my life was over. But Jesus had a different point of view. All I did was confess, and Jesus did the rest. Thank God, I've been released and made brand new!

You're looking at a child forgiven. You're looking at a soul set free. You're looking at a pardoned prisoner who's walking now in liberty. I'm standing here because of wondrous grace. My sins are in the deepest sea. He washed me clean somehow, so what you're seeing now is a happy, happy child set free.

What you see is not a perfect person. What you see is not a faultless soul. What you see is someone who was broken until the hand of Jesus made me whole. What you see is not a finished product. What you see might sometimes miss the mark. But I know my Father's eyes see only His sweet prize; the perfect holy children that we are.
