The Doxology - Hymn 253 (OLD 100TH) Congregation

Benediction Jessica Haywood, soprano

An Irish Blessing
May the road rise to meet you
May the wind blow at your back
May the sun shine warmly on your face
May the rain fall softly on your field and until we meet again until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of his hand
Amen

Hymn of the Month for November--NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

Written by Lutheran pastor Martin Rinkart during the Thirty Years' War (1618-1648), when he was called upon to minister and serve at a time of widespread deaths due to battle, famine, and disease, this hymn was often used as a family table prayer. The writer's steadfast faith allowed him to express joy and thankfulness even in the midst of strife and turmoil, and is also exemplified in the hymn's prayer for our gracious God to "guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills in this world and the next."

The tune name, NUN DANKET, is taken from the German words used in the hymn's title. The chorale melody was later famously employed by composers J.S. Bach and Felix Mendelssohn in significant fashion.

Music and Worship Ministries

On this morning's flute ensemble music.... Trinity's flute ensemble has a new name: "Flutes of the Spirit." This group is a recent addition to Trinity's music ministries and has already blessed our congregation a couple of times prior to this morning. Their offertory music today is an American hymn tune which has been arranged for flute ensemble. When Jesus Wept was penned by William Billings, perhaps the very first American choral composer. He was known for his "fuguing tunes" and his active involvement in early American singing schools.

Christmas Music Preparations Continue: All of our music ministry groups are immersed in the beautiful music of the upcoming Advent and Christmas season. It is not too late to get involved in the hope, peace, joy, and love! Contact Billy for more information.
